ORDER

AND NOW, this 24th day of August, 2006, upon consideration of defendants' motions in limine (Docs. 189, 190) to preclude the expert testimony of Andrew C. Verzilli, Andrew G. Verzilli, and Stuart Z. Dershaw, arguing, inter alia, that the experts' testimony on the antitrust claims is irrelevant and that the Verzillis' calculations of common law damages are irrelevant, unreliable, or lacking a factual basis, and it appearing that the order of court dated August 24, 2005 (Doc. 193) granted summary judgment in favor of defendants on the antitrust, tortious interference with contract, and breach of contract claims, and that the remaining defamation claim is not implicated by the instant motions, it is hereby ORDERED that defendants' motions in limine (Docs. 189, 190) are DENIED as moot, without prejudice to defendants' right to file motions in limine specifically addressing the remaining defamation claim.<sup>1</sup>
